LED bulbs save 70% power bill to MCC

Complaints on streetlights: Call 1800-425-5925 between 8.30 am and 10.30 pm

Mysuru, Nov. 9 (SPN&BCT)- Director of Municipal Administration N. Manjushree inspected the project to install LED bulbs at several areas of the city last night. She took a first-hand view of the brightness emitted by the energy-efficient Light Emitting Diode (LED) bulbs when compared to the earlier sodium vapour lamps.

First, the IAS Officer, accompanied by Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and other officers visited the poles opposite the Sri Lakshmivenkataramanaswamy Temple at Vontikoppal and collected information from the officers and also inspected the centralised control system.

Director of Municipal Administration N. Manjushree along with officials inspecting the project to install LED bulbs last night.

The team later visited the area behind the Cheluvamba Park, the official residence of MCC Commissioner, LIC Circle at Bannimantap and inspected the quality of lighting. It is a seven-year Public Private Partnership (PPP) model project being implemented by New-Delhi based e-Smart firm.

In all, 74,691 LED bulbs have been installed across the city and this has resulted in savings of 70 percent electricity charges, Manjushree told reporters later.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The three-day Global Investors' Meet (GIM) organised by the Karnataka Government has ended on a high note with investment proposals of nearly Rs. 10 lakh crore made, almost double the Government's expectation at the start of the summit. While the picture may appear rosy at the moment, the reality may turn out to be quite different going by past experience. Most investments promised at past GIMs in Karnataka and elsewhere have not materialised. Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai himself expressed this apprehension at the closing ceremony when he mentioned that the MoUs, which are non-binding agreements, meant little to him unless the promises were fulfilled. Though 30% of the MoUs signed, which by itself exceeds the value of all the projects approved during previous GIMs, have already been given the necessary clearances, the State's notorious bureaucracy could still play spoil-sport. At the same time, the Government should ensure that norms, especially those pertaining to environmental clearances, are not thrown to the wind in its eagerness to attract investments.

A serious concern that remains is that while the Government has for long promised to develop tier-2 cities into industrial hubs and thus reduce the pressure on Bengaluru, it has failed to provide the required infrastructure to make them attractive to investors. Bengaluru itself has lost much of its sheen due to urban floods, bad roads and mobility challenges. Unless the Government fixes these issues and ensures ease of doing business by cutting red tape and corruption, both of which have been stumbling blocks to greater investments in the State, the tall promises made at the GIM will remain only on paper. — In Deccan Herald

Fur-inspired bed linens feel like petting a cat

Tokyo: Japanese clothing and housewares company Nissen recently launched its most intriguing product yet – a line of bed linens and blankets that try to mimic cat fur.

Studies have shown that petting a cat for just 10 minutes reduces the levels of stress hormones and any cat lover will tell you just how relaxing the experience can be. But what about people who would love to have a pet cat, but are living in rented apartments that don't allow pets? Or how about people who are allergic to cats, what are they supposed to do to relax? Well, that's where the new Neko Feel ("Cat Feel") material developed by Nissen comes into play. The Japanese company just launched a line of bed Neko Feel linens that it claims mimics the feel of cat fur.

Nissen consulted its cat-owning employees about various features of the material, like softness, thickness and the length of the fibers.

Food bank spells word with 25,550 cans

Mysore Palace illumination has lost its original grandeur

Sir,

Much has been written and spoken about grand Dasara illumination. But sadly the Mysore Palace illumination was very bad to say the least.

For those of us who are born and brought up in Mysuru and who have seen the old Palace illumination with incandescent bulbs, the present LED bulbs are a disaster so to say.

The grandeur, the aura and the brilliant radiance of the illuminated Palace is no longer there. Earlier with the incandescent bulbs the sky above the Palace would glow with radiance which is now lacking.

Monuments like Mysore Palace which are among the most visited tourist sites in the world have to be maintained very well keeping in mind the legacy of the place. But sadly the Governments of the day have not given priority to safeguarding the rich heritage buildings in Mysuru.

Heritage sites like the Mysore Palace should be maintained in their original grandeur by regular upkeep and maintenance. Moreover the Government should not stoop to saving a few lakhs in terms of power bills by sacrificing the grandeur of this world famous monument.

There are many ways to be tight-fisted but when it comes to projecting our world famous Mysore Palace, let us not be penny wise and pound foolish.

I feel that earlier the bulbs were fixed very close to each other but over the years the alternate bulbs were removed to reduce the power consumption. Later with advancement of technology, I think they introduced LED bulbs.

Now the overall grandeur of illumination is lost on the magnificent Palace.

Hope the authorities would seriously look into this observation and rectify the same by restoring the original glory and grandeur of our Palace.

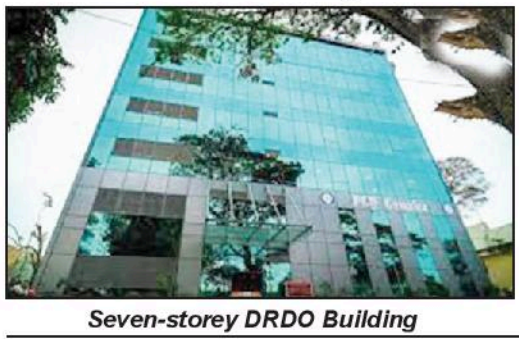
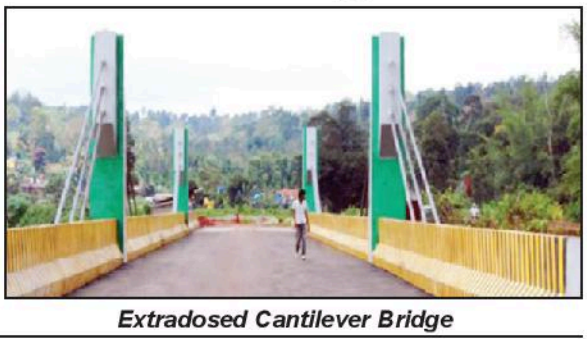
L&T constructs DRDO's 7-storey building in just 45 days

BuildTech-2022 discusses finer aspects of 1,30,000 sq.ft structure in Bengaluru



Seven-storey DRDO Building



Extradosed Cantilever Bridge

Mysuru, Nov. 9 (BCT)- Larsen & Toubro (L&T) constructed a seven-storey, state-of-the-art Flight Control System (FCS) integration facility for Defence Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) in just 45 days using integrated hybrid modular construction technology (IHMCT). The facility was inaugurated on March 17 by Defence Minister Rajnath Singh and the uniqueness of the project and construction methodology were discussed recently at the technical sessions held as part of BuildTech-2022 organised by the Builders' Association of India (BAI), Mysuru Centre and Mysore Builders' Charitable Trust (MBCT). As part of BuildTech-2022, a National Technical Seminar on 'Latest Technologies in Construction: Need of the Hour — Relevant to Construction Industry' was held on Nov. 4 and 5 at MBCT Auditorium in Vishweshwaranagar.

B.R. Karthikeyan, Head of Contracts, Buildings and Factories and T. Sasidhar, Joint General Manager, Designs - both from L&T Constructions said, "In a three-acre plot, the RCC pods, wall panels and other elements were precast and transported to the site and high standard of construction was achieved by rigorous quality control measures taken at every phase."

IHMCT entails on-site and off-site operations to be perfectly coordinated and integrated. The work — with a total built-up area of 1,30,000 sq.ft. — was executed in three shifts with 24 partners (vendors), and the materials were procured from 21 States, they said.

Bamboo Structure

Mechanisation and Analytics

Vishal Verma, Joint General Manager, L&T Constructions, explained the use of mechanisation and analytics in the construction industry and touched upon ten technological pillars. One of them is Internet of Things (IoT) that played a vital role. Embedded sensors would reveal the performance of machines before imminent breakdown.

Dr. Sandeep Shirkhedkar of ImaGIS Engineering Solutions, Nagpur spoke about advancement in surveying and mapping that could be effectively used to locate potholes, edge break and disintegration of roads.

V.N. Heggade, former Executive Director of Gammon India and an alumnus of NIE, Mysuru, analysed the extradosed cantilever bridges as an affordable technology. Extradosed bridge is an in-between variation of girder and cable-stayed bridge. When the old arched bridge at Siddapur in Kodagu was to be replaced, it was decided to go in for the extradosed bridge, the first in the country, and was designed by Heggade.

Supertech Towers that were demolished recently

Dr. Jagadish Vengala, Associate Professor at PVPSIT, Vijayawada, spoke about the potential of bamboo as a building material and said the life of structures built with treated bamboo would last for 40 to 50 years and they could be built fast. Dr. Omkar Pawar, Manager, Schueco, Bengaluru, drove home the importance of glass and glazing systems in creating beautiful facades and enhancing the aesthetics of structures. M.N. Ramesh of Enstrectura Consultants, Bengaluru, spoke on Advances in Industrial Flooring Technology.

Forensic Civil Engineering

B.S.C. Rao of Advaita Consultants, Bengaluru, said that Forensic Civil Engineering (FCE), was a new discipline in India while it has gained a lot of significance in advanced countries. He defined FCE as the art and science of engineering to investigate the causes of a structure collapse and present the facts cogently. He said that with a large number of structural failures taking place in the country, there was a great need for forensic civil engineers.

Dr. Anil Joseph, MD, Geostructurals Pvt. Ltd., Kochi, spoke about the recent demolition of Supertech Towers in Noida. Ashraya Group Housing Scheme at Gorur

'Former MLA's double standards exposed'

Ashraya Committee points the accusing finger at M.K. Somashekar as he opposed project

Mysuru, Nov. 9 (PM&BCT)- Accusing former Krishnaraja MLA M.K. Somashekar of opposing Ashraya Group Housing Scheme to build G+2 houses at Gorur Layout, the Ashraya Committee members of the Constituency have said that the project was proposed in 2015 under the leadership of the then MLA M.K. Somashekar and the approval was granted by the then State Government.

"This is double standards. It was the same Somashekar who proposed the housing scheme way back in 2015 and now, it is the same Somashekar (now a former MLA) who is opposing the project. Moreover, he is indulging in propaganda and has been brainwashing the beneficiaries for his selfish ends," alleged Vidya Urs, member of Ashraya Committee of Krishnaraja Constituency.

Addressing a press conference at Pathrakarthara Bhavan in the city on Monday, she said that the MLA opposing the project is politically motivated and only serves the interests of the former MLA and not of the people and the beneficiaries of the scheme.

"The MLA instigated a protest on Nov. 4 in front of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Office. The project was approved when Somashekar was the MLA and now when the BJP Government is implementing the project, the former MLA is opposing it. If this is not double standards, then what is," she questioned.

Krishnaraja Constituency Ashraya Committee Member Vidya Urs is seen addressing a press meet in city recently as others look on.

Govt. approval in 2015

"We have all the documents to establish that it was Somashekar who proposed the idea of group housing instead of building individual houses and the Ashraya Committee meeting held on Jan. 16, 2015 ratified the project at Gorur Layout. It was decided to build group houses instead of single houses as there is a paucity of space. Also, the approval from the Government was procured for group housing," she said, releasing documents to support her arguments.

"The project has been approved by the Centre too and on Jan. 27. 2016, letters were issued by the MCC to the beneficiaries of the group housing scheme mentioning the details of the scheme. Later, affidavits of consent were collected from the beneficiaries along with new applications. But the entire file containing over 600 documents is missing from the MCC Office. A Police complaint has been filed by the MCC Commissioner in Krishnaraja Police Station," Vidya Urs revealed.

Ramdas sanctions more land

After approval of the DPR by the Government, G+ houses were sanctioned at Gorur Block No. 8 and tenders were called to build houses by the then MLA M.K. Somashekar. "But the project could not see the light of the day and meanwhile, Somashekar lost the election. Now when the BJP MLA S.A. Ramdas is building over 2,212 houses at the same location and the work is under progress, the former MLA is causing problems and is the reason for creating confusion," she said.

MLA Ramdas has been instrumental in sanctioning land for Ashraya houses and also has sanctioned 15.37-acre land at Nachanahallipalya under Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana in 2022 for phase 1 and also has sent a proposal to Chief Minister and Housing Minister for phase 2 of the project.

"Somashekar has said that he will quit politics if Ramdas releases documents if even one acre of land is sanctioned for housing projects. Let the former MLA abide by his words instead of resorting to a smear campaign," Vidya Urs added.

Ashraya Committee members Hemanth Kumar, B. Gowri and Hansraj were present at the press conference.

I am yet to decide on the choice of Constituency: Siddharamaiah

Bengaluru, Nov. 9 (KMS&DM)- With just a few months to go for the State Assembly polls, Opposition leader and former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah said that he is yet to decide on the Constituency from where he would contest the 2023 Assembly elections.

Siddharamaiah

Speaking to presspersons here on Monday, Siddharamaiah said that there are many rumours and speculations doing rounds across the State on the Assembly segment that he would contest from. However, he is sure of winning from any Constituency that he would contest as the Congress party candidate, he said while lashing out at the ruling BJP for ridiculing him over the issue of Constituency.

Maintaining that he is under pressure to contest from Varuna, Kolar, Chamarajpet in Bengaluru, Badami etc., Siddharamaiah, who is the sitting Badami MLA, said that thousands of people of his Constituency (Badami) have written to him saying that they would sit before his house until he announces his candidature from Badami again.

Bemoaning that he has not been able to visit his Constituency Badami in Bagalkot district for the past two months, the Congress leader contended that despite his unavailability, the people there were craving for him.

However, he will take a final decision on the choice of his Constituency as the election nears and at present, he will continue to work for organising and gearing up the party for the Assembly polls, former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah stated.

BJP plans to hold Rath Yatras ahead of Assembly polls

Bengaluru, Nov. 9 (KMS&DM)- Even as the Opposition Congress and the JD(S) are taking out padayatras in the run up to next year's Assembly polls, the ruling BJP, which does not want to be left behind, has planned to take out Rath Yatras all across the State ahead of the Assembly polls which are just a few months away.

Basavaraj Bommai

The BJP is mulling on taking out separate Yatras under the leadership of Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, former CM B.S. Yediyurappa, State BJP Chief Nalin Kumar Kateel and State Party In-charge Arun Singh spanning over three months from December to March next year and covering all 224 Assembly segments of the State.

Already, two Ratha Yatra vehicles are ready while four others are to roll out shortly, it is learnt.

When will the pothole-filled Male Mahadeshwara Road be asphalted?

About 500 mts stretch from Nazarbad Police Station till Nandini Milk Galaxy is unmotorable

Mysuru, Nov. 9 (MK&KS)- The Male Mahadeshwara Road from Nazarbad Police Station Circle towards Yaraganahalli Circle is the busiest road with thousands of vehicles plying on it daily.

Though the stretch from Madegowda Circle-Ring Road junction till DFRL Quarters has been developed, the remaining stretch of the road (about 500 mts) till Nazarbad Police Station Circle is not developed resulting in formation of crater-like potholes on this portion of the road.

This is causing a lot of inconvenience to motorists especially for vehicles ferrying children to various schools at Siddarthanagar and even ambulances carrying patients to nearby hospitals. There are also instances of two-wheeler riders falling and injuring themselves and also four-wheelers getting damaged due to huge potholes.

Saddened by the negligent attitude of the officials concerned, the residents of the apartments on this stretch of the road fill the huge potholes with mud and jelly stones, which last for a day or two and again the potholes appear.

In March this year, following an appeal from former Mayor Sandesh Swamy to the MCC to undertake widening of the road from Nazarbad Police Station Circle till DFRL Quarters, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and MCC Superintending Engineer conducted a spot inspection and nothing more has happened since then.

This road has been widened and developed by the PWD from the Ring Road junction till the Old Milk Dairy. But due to problems in land acquisition process, the widening works from Old Milk Dairy till Nazarbad Police Station Circle has not been taken up.

A shopkeeper on this stretch of the road told SOM that he has been conducting business since about 15 years and added that he has not seen the road being asphalted. Recently, patch up works were taken up but it did not even last for 15 days, he added.

Another regular commuter on this stretch said that till the road is widened and developed, the MCC can undertake potholes filling works which will help motorists commute easily on this already narrow road.

Meanwhile, a MCC Engineer told SOM that they were waiting for the PWD to asphalt the road. As they (PWD) have not taken up the asphalting works, the MCC has decided to take it up for which tenders will be floated shortly.

It is also alleged that Nemiram had taken money from three persons after getting a sale agreement of his house in Srirampura done in their names and had also taken money from another person after registering his house in the person's name. But on Monday night, Nemiraj has fled from the city along with his family members and pledged gold and silver, it is learnt.

Kuvempunagar Police are investigating the case.

Kesare, Rayanakere waste plants to be reality in two months

MLA S.A. Ramdas, Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. Roopa and others at Kesare Solid Waste Treatment Plant yesterday.

While the Kesare Solid Waste Treatment and Recycling Plant will be functional by Dec. 15 — at least the trial run to clear 150 tonnes per day will be initiated — the Rayanakere Solid Waste Treatment and Recycling Plant will be functional by January 2023. Rayanakere Plant has a capacity to clear 200 tonnes of waste per day while the Kesare Plant has a total capacity of clearing 300 tonnes of waste daily.

Missing out Cleanest City rank

It is due to vast mounds of legacy waste that Mysuru has been missing out on the Cleanest City rank that the city bagged for the first time in 2014 and in 2015. In the years after that, Mysuru lagged behind in all the Swachh Bharat rankings and had to be satisfied with rankings that were below several cities.

Living in the surroundings of Excel Plant has become a horrible experience for residents with undesirable smell emanating out of the plant 24x7. Residents of Vidyaranyapuram, Kanakagiri, J.P. Nagar, Gundu Rao Nagar and Vishweshwaranagar have been demanding the relocation of the plant for years.

Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas visited the Rayanakere Treatment Plant this morning accompanied by Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. Roopa Yogesh and officials of the Mysuru City Corporation and inspected the works underway.

Basement to prevent water seepage

As the Rayanakere area is a lake land, a 4-ft basement has been constructed to prevent moisture and water seepage. Pillars will be laid by the sides and the groundwork for the pillars have been completed. Rayanakere is a Rs. 9.2 crore project and sheets will be laid on top of the pillars. Machines will be procured and electricity connection will be provided once the structure is ready. A new asphalted road has to be laid to reach Rayanakere from the H.D. Kote Road.

The Kesare Plant has a total capacity of clearing 300 tonnes of waste per day and the trial runs will begin from Dec. 15. "Over 150 tonnes will be cleared daily during the trial run and the capacity will be gradually increased to 200. If more waste is generated, the machines are capable of clearing another 100 metric tonnes scientifically after segregation," Ramdas said.

Yesterday, MLA Ramdas, Mayor Shivakumar and Deputy Mayor Dr. Roopa visited the Kesare Plant and inspected the progress of works. They were accompanied by a team of MCC officials.

New stench-preventing technology

Waste collected from all the 65 Wards of the Mysuru City Corporation is collected at 18 places and segregation of wet waste and dry waste is being done. "New technology has been adopted at the waste treatment plants so that they do not emit stench. Work at Kesare Plant will be completed by the end of November and post that all the machines will be fixed to give power connectivity. The trial run will be completed by Dec. 15 and the waste can be brought here in phases," Ramdas said.

The Kesare plant has been established at an area of 11.5 acres and in all, Rs. 22 crore has been spent on this. "The Vidyaranyapuram Solid Waste Management Plant has a capacity of handling 150 metric tonnes per day. Once the Kesare Plant begins operations, waste generated under MCC Zonal Offices 7 and 8 and two Wards each from Zonal Offices 5 and 9 in Narasimharaja Constituency will be taken to Kesare," Ramdas added.

As over 200 metric tonnes of waste can be processed at Kesare, the pressure on Vidyaranyapuram Plant will reduce and the plant will be closed in stages. The 7 lakh tonnes of legacy waste will be cleared and tenders will be called for the same, Ramdas said.

"Earlier, we had conventional bulbs including tube lights, high-pressure sodium, mercury vapour and metal halide lights (halogen lamps) and now they have been replaced by LED bulbs and this has proved a money-saver project for the MCC," Manjushree said.

Smart meter pilot project

The project will be implemented with a Centralised Control and Monitoring System (CCMS) with smart meters and Internet of Things (IoT) controllers in the next phase. This enables integration of all LED lamps and they can be operated remotely through wireless communication. "The CCMS control mechanism will be implemented as soon as we get approval from Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC)," she added.

The CCMS enables engineers to operate, control, monitor and rectify the integrated LEDs remotely via wireless communication. The system works on a node-and-hub model where each LED lamp is geo-tagged to a controller and a smart meter. The data collected is transmitted to the centralised hub or a control room.

"We have selected Kuvempunagar Subdivision as the pilot project for smart meters and smart switch points. If successful, the same facility will be extended to the rest of the city," Manjushree said.

New control room

A new control room has been established to maintain streetlights and the public can complain about the defunct lights and other issues bothering them in their area. Good scripts produce best actors: Pankaj Tripathi

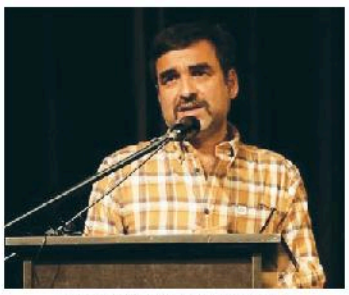
Noted actor speaks at 'Actors on Acting' event; says an actor should bring smile on people's faces



Actor Pankaj Tripathi

Mysuru, Nov. 9 (MK&BCT)- An actor who strives to be a social stakeholder is not alone but he turns a thinker in the process of acting, controlling his mind, body and breath in a deep concentrative state.

This was a collective opinion that emerged at a programme titled 'Actors on Acting' that was held at Kiru Rangamandira in Kalamandira premises in the city on Monday. It was organised by Acting Shastra, in association with Mysore District Amateur Artists Association and Arivu Ranga.

Actor Pankaj Tripathi was the main attraction at the event where he spoke extensively about acting and how a good script can make all the difference. Tripathi's journey from theatre to the big screen is astounding and he has now become the go-to actor for many directors who are writing roles specifically for him.

"Brilliant scripts produce the best actors as it brings out the best in the people who act. There are many shining examples of how character artistes are coming into their own with the changing landscape of Indian showbiz. While improvisation is an important tool for an actor to immerse himself or herself in a role, it is not something that all actors can do," he opined.

As a good script is important for a film or an OTT show, even dialogues are crucial. "If you ask me, an actor must be responsible and, in every performance, be it independent cinema or commercial cinema whatever kind of storytelling it may be, the actors must engage the audience so that whoever is coming to watch the content, they are entertained," he added.

"An actor must entertain. But not with anything over-the-top. The actor should bring a smile on people's faces. Also, it is not just to entertain but also to say what the director and writer want to convey," he said. Pankaj recalled his maiden on-screen appearance as an actor in 2003 with T.S. Nagabharana's Kannada film 'Chigurida Kanasu'.

In his brief-but-special appearance, Pankaj Tripathi shared the screen space with Shiva Rajkumar as a fellow college student in New Delhi. "I have also spoken to Puneeth Rajkumar," he recalled.

Former Rangayana Director H. Janardhan (Janni) said that an actor is not lonely and if at all he is alone, he cannot be a good actor. "An actor has a social conscience and he tries to rectify the social ills. He is a social stakeholder. Give and take is fine in acting but one must not build a relationship here as it is not right," he opined. "Fame in acting comes with hard work, dedication and honesty. He must have all the qualities of a common man including simplicity, love, patience. If a person does not have these qualities, it is impossible to become an actor," Janni said.

Drama Director Sripad Bhat, theatre activist N. Yathish Kollegal, actor D.U. Saraswathi also touched upon various aspects of acting. "Life and art are inseparable and art mingles with life," they opined. Writer Sandhya Mendonca moderated the session, artiste K.P. Lakshmana and journalist/author Preeti Nagaraj were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Serendipity

Pronunciation: sair-un-DIP-uh-tee.
Meaning: Serendipity is luck that takes the form of finding valuable or pleasant things that are not looked for.
Origin: The word serendipity did not come about by luck; rather, it was intentionally coined by 18th century author Horace Walpole, who was eager to share a happenstance discovery he had made while researching a coat of arms. In a letter to his friend Horace Mann he wrote: "This discovery indeed is almost of that kind which I call Serendipity, a very expressive word, which as I have nothing better to tell you, I shall endeavor to explain to you: you will understand it better by the derivation than by the definition. I once read a silly fairy tale, called 'The Three Princes of Serendip': as their highnesses travelled, they were always making discoveries, by accidents and sagacity, of things they were not in quest of ..." Walpole's memory of the tale (which, as luck would have it, was not quite accurate) gave serendipity the meaning it retains to this day.
Example: "One of the things I find so fascinating about New York Times Cooking is that reading one recipe often leads me to another, and the serendipity leads me to make something entirely different from what I had intended to make when I logged on." — Sam Sifton

THE ODD WORD

Sangfroid

Coolness; composure.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Step up to the plate

Meaning: The phrase 'Step up to the plate' means to accept a challenge or responsibility for something; to rise to the occasion.
Origin: You probably won't be surprised to learn that the origin of the idiom 'Step up to the plate' is baseball. No one is certain when the term was first used as an idiom, but the expression is a very easy one to understand. When a baseball player is prepared to receive a pitch, he or she 'steps up to the plate' to indicate readiness.
Example: "It's time for Tom to step up to the plate and take on his share of work."
